Terms

Copy before any work. The owner gets a copy of this agreement, with the outline of the work on page 1, before any work is started (Ark. Code § 17-37-221(b)).

The license holder's agreement. All work is performed in the name of the license holder named on page 1, and this agreement is on its form (Ark. Code § 17-37-215(c)). An agreement signed with one of its agents belongs to the license holder (2 CAR § 54-202).

Each visit. The company inspects and treats the areas checked on page 1 for the pests checked there, using pesticides applied as their labels direct. A service ticket lists what was found and the products used.

The owner's part. Give the technician access to the areas being serviced and follow the precautions on each service ticket. Leaks, gaps, and clutter that let pests in are the owner's to fix. The technician points them out when he or she sees them.

Re-service. If covered pests come back between regular visits, the company returns at the re-service price on page 2.

Ending service. Service ends on the date the term ends unless the renewal terms on page 2 say otherwise. Services already performed are still owed.

Records. The company keeps a copy of this agreement and a record of every visit for at least two years (Ark. Code § 17-37-221(d)).

Signatures

I agree to this service agreement, and I received a copy of it, with the outline of the work, before any work was started.
